
Title: Great Pyramid of Giza

Description: Counted among the most popular places to visit in Egypt, the Great Pyramid of Giza is the last attraction among the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World that have survived the rigorous test of time. The Great Pyramid of Giza happens to be the largest and the oldest of the 3 intriguing pyramids present in the Giza pyramid complex. As per the beliefs of the Egyptologists, this pyramid is the tomb of pharaoh Khufu, the Fourth Dynasty Egyptian. The Great Pyramid of Giza remained as the world's tallest man-made building for over 3,800 years. Location: Giza, Giza Governorate, Egypt Timings: 8 AM to 5 PM, on all days Entry Fee: INR 1,700 per head

Title: Luxor Temple

Description: Constructed majorly by the pharaohs Ramses II (1279-1213 BC) and Amenhotep III (1390-1352 BC), the Luxor Temple is one of the most strikingly graceful monumental places to see in Egypt. Also referred to as the Southern Sanctuary, this temple has received some modifications by King Tutankhamun, the Romans, and Alexander the Great over the passage of time. Declared as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, features beautiful sandstone walls that glow gorgeously during the sunset. Location: Luxor City, Luxor, Luxor Governorate, Egypt Timings: 6 AM to 10 PM, on all days Entry Fee: 160 EGP per head; 80 EGP per head for students

Title: Nile River Cruise

Description: Defining the real beauty of Egypt, the Nile river is one of the most photogenic places to visit in Egypt. The view of the deep blue waters and the breathtaking sunrise and sunset can leave any nature lover totally awestruck. The Nile River also offers the visitors excellent cruising opportunities, including multi-day cruise tours. In the course of their cruise tours on the Nile River, the travelers can explore a myriad of top iconic landmarks of the country, including the Edfu Temple of Horus and the Temple of Kom Ombo.

Title: Valley of the Kings

Description: Nestled on the west bank of the Nile and once known as the Place of Truth or the Great Necropolis of Millions of Years of Pharaoh, the Valley of the Kings is the primary place of burial of the Pharaohs of the 11th to 16th century BC. This place is home to over 63 chambers and tombs that are adorned with intriguing artworks related to Egyptian mythology. Location: Luxor, Luxor Governorate, Egypt Timings: 6 AM to 5 PM, on all days Entry Fee: INR 380 for 3 tombs of choice & INR 760 for KV62

Title: Egyptian Antiquities Museum

Description: Also known as the Museum of Cairo and the Egyptian Museum, the Egyptian Antiquities Museum lies in downtown Cairo. Offering an insight of the Egyptian golden era, when the country was ruled by kings, this beautiful museum is home to many unique and rare artefacts, dating back to the prehistoric era. Packed with more than 120,000 historic items, the Egyptian Antiquities Museum is one of the most recommended Egypt places to go for all history buffs. Location: Cairo, Egypt Timings: Monday to Wednesday, Friday and Saturday: 9 AM to 5 PM and Thursday and Sunday: 9 AM to 9 PM Entry Fee: INR 460 per head

Title: Siwa Oasis at Libyan Border

Description: Located in the western part of Egypt, far away from the hustle and bustle of the city, Siwa Oasis is one of the most serene places to visit in Egypt. Flanked by towering date palms and encompassed by several picturesque water springs, this charming little oasis makes for one of the most beautiful tourist spots in the Western Desert. This place is surrounded by the remnants of a magnificent mud-brick fortification. Siwa Oasis can be the perfect base from where you can plan your adventure tours to the vast surrounding desert.

Title: The White Desert in Farafra

Description: One of the most offbeat places to visit in Egypt is the White Desert, which features majestic chalk mountains that create the look of a snowy expanse amidst the arid land. The entire landscape is packed with stunning iceberg-shaped pinnacles and huge white boulders. If you are done with exploring the tombs and temples of Egypt, pay a visit to the unique White Desert and soak in its scenic natural beauty. Location: Farafra, Egypt

Title: Sakkara Pyramids

Description: You must have heard about the Pyramids of Giza, but you will be glad to know that Egypt also has many other majestic pyramids in store for you. Just a few kilometers away from Cairo city, Sakkara Pyramids offer an insight of the architectural talent that flourished among the ancient Egyptians. The Red Pyramid, Bent Pyramid, and Step Pyramid, together form the breathtaking Sakkara Pyramids that are standing tall to treat your eyes. There are also various old tombs with intricately adorned interior walls that will catch your attention, alongside the pyramids. Location: Giza, Giza Governorate, Egypt

Title: Mosque of Mohamed Ali

Description: Better known as Alabaster Mosque, the Mosque of Mohamed Ali is an Islamic shrine, lying in the Citadel of Cairo city. Dating back to the 19th century, this mosque is believed to be one of the best places in Egypt not only for spiritual enthusiasts, but also for architecture buffs. Flaunting its twin minarets and animated silhouette, this mosque is considered to be the largest built structure in the 19th century. The Mosque of Mohamed Ali boasts an Ottoman style architectural design with impressively adorned interiors. Location: Al Abageyah, El-Khalifa, Cairo Governorate, Egypt Timings: 08:00 AM to 05:00 PM, on all days Entry Fee: 40 EGP, per head

Title: Gezira Island

Description: Lying towards the western side of downtown Cairo and floating on the blue Nile river, the Gezira Island is one of the most romantic Egypt places to go. The northern part of this island features the Zamalek district and the southern part features the Gezira district. The Gezira Island is connected by 4 bridges, namely the 15th of May Bridge, 6th October Bridge, Al-Galaa Bridge, and Qasr EL Nil Bridge. During the 19th century, the island was known as "Jardin des Plantes (translating to "Garden of Plants" in English), owing to its bewildering collection of imported plants. Location: Cairo, Egypt

Title: Great Sphinx of Giza

Description: Featuring the face of a human being and the body of a lion, the 66 feet tall Great Sphinx of Giza stands on the western bank of the Nile river. Cut out from limestone, the Great Sphinx of Giza is considered to be Egypt's oldest known monument. Although its original age and meaning has still not been decoded, the Sphinx remains as one of the best places to visit in Egypt for history as well as mythology enthusiasts. Location: Al Giza Desert, Giza Governorate, Egypt Timings: 8 AM to 5 PM

Title: Tiran Island

Description: Tiran Island is a stunning and almost ethereal piece of uninhabited land amidst the blue waters of the Red Sea, which is located on the maritime border of Saudi. As the island is under the Ras Mohammed National Park, it is a very well protected Biosphere where you can enjoy some of the best underwater natural treasures like marine flora and fauna and naturally colorful reefs. It is one of the most recommended places to visit in Egypt, especially if snorkeling and diving is something you love.

Title: Ras Muhammad National Park

Description: Ras Muhammad National Park is not only the most popular national park of the country, but is also one of the best places to visit in Egypt for diving. This park is nestled amidst the breathtaking mangroves and flamboyant coral reefs of the Red Sea and the inland Sinai desert. The clear waters here offer divers the chance to easily witness the colourful corals and flourishing reef fishes. The Ras Muhammad National Park is also home to a myriad of White Storks and Rissos Dolphins. Location: Sinai, Sharm El Sheikh, Egypt Timings: 7 AM to 4 PM, on all days Entry Fee: INR 350 per head

Title: King Tutankhamun Museum

Description: The world's most famous mummy is that of the Egyptian ruler King Tutankhamun. His coffin has been kept in a very carefully preserved state in the Grand Egyptian Museum of Cairo, which is famously referred to as King Tutankhamun Museum. Spread over 480,00 square meters of land just a few miles south of the Pyramid of Giza and considered to be one of the top-rated Egypt places to visit. King Tutankhamun Museum is one of the most intricate accounts of the Ancient Egyptian reign of Pharaohs. The archeologists have also restored the throne of the king and kept it at the conservation center of the museum since August 2019.

Title: Aqua Blue Water Park

Description: Packed with a total of 9 huge pools and 44 exhilarating water slides, Aqua Blue Water Park is one of the most recommended places to visit in Egypt for adventure enthusiasts. Some of the popular rides that are enjoyed by all adrenaline seekers visiting the park include the Tube Free Fall, the Twisters, the Rafting Slide, the Black Hole, and the Kamikaze. The Aqua Blue Water Park is also equipped with a dedicated kids club, a basketball court, a tennis court, a massage room, and a billiards room. Location: Aqua Park City, Sharm el-Sheikh, Qesm Sharm Ash Sheikh, South Sinai, Egypt Timings: 10:00 AM to 05:00 PM, on all days

Title: Old Market of Sharm

Description: The quaint streets of the Old Market of Sharm are packed with a myriad of colourful and lively souvenir shops, which makes this open-air market one of the best places in Egypt for shoppers. Tourists visiting this flamboyant market can enjoy shopping for traditional textiles, ornaments, trinkets, spices, shisha pipes, traditional ahwa (coffee) joints, and saffron. After your shopping spree is over, you can relish your taste buds with some authentic delicacies available here, including seafood meals and Egyptian barbecue. Location: Sharm El Sheikh, South Sinai Governorate, Egypt Timings: 9 AM to 11 PM, on all days

Title: Karnak Temple

Description: Counted among the top historical tourist attractions in Egypt, the Karnak Temple is home to a number of popular buildings, including the Temple of Khons, the Festival Temple of Tuthmosis III, and the Great Temple of Amun. The complex of this renowned temple also shelters the famous Konark Open Air Museum. Visitors can also find a number of age-old pylons, chapels, and remnants of decayed temples here. The Karnak Temple is also considered to be the world's second largest ancient spiritual site. Location: El-Karnak, Luxor, Luxor Governorate, Egypt Timings: 6 AM to 5.30 PM, on all days Entry Fee: 200 EGP per head

Title: Temple of Medinat Habu

Description: Also referred to as the Mortuary Temple of Ramses III, the Temple of Medinat Habu is one of the most famous religious places to visit in Egypt's Luxor city. Although King Ramses III was buried in the Valley of Kings, the Medinet Habu was constructed in his honour. The southeast corner of this monumental structure offers the best view of the whole complex. Some of the important attractions of the Medinet Habu include the Chapels of the Votaresses, the Second Pylon, Sacred Lake, the First Pylon, Nilometer, & Hypostyle Hall. Location: Al Bairat, Al Qarna, Luxor Governorate, Egypt Timings: 6 AM to 5

PM, on all daysEntry Fee:25 EGP per head

Title: Khan-el-Khalili

Description: Laid down in the 14th century and considered to be one of the best places to visit in Egypt for shoppaholics, Khan-el-Khalili has its name among the largest markets of the world. This colourful open market has a very chirpy and vibrant atmosphere, with vendors selling a number of local items and customers bargaining at their best. Spread across a huge area, the stores and shops here offer all kinds of souvenirs, including semi precious stoneworks, miniature pyramids, toy camels, silverware, gold artifacts, stained glass lamps, antiques, copperware, handmade carpets, and incense. Location: El-Gamaleya, El Gamaliya, Cairo Governorate, Egypt Timings: 12 AM to 12 PM

Title: The Hanging Church

Description: Also referred to as the Church of Saint Virgin Mary, the iconic Hanging Church of Cairo happens to be a stunning stone facade, flaunting intricate inscriptions with Arabic and Coptic marks. Established back in the 3rd century AD, the Hanging Church is one of the oldest churches in the world. The church is named as the Hanging Church as it is constructed at the top of the gatehouse of the Babylon Fortress and seems to be hanging mid-air. Location: Kom Ghorab, Old Cairo, Cairo Governorate, Egypt Timings: 8:00 AM to 11:00 AM

Title: Museum Of Modern Egyptian Art

Description: Nestled on the Gezira Island and better known as the Gezira Center for Modern Art, the Museum Of Modern Egyptian Art is an integral part of the National Cultural Center. Featuring an impressive collection of contemporary Egyptian arts crafted between the 20th and 21st centuries, this magnificent museum is one of the favorite places to see in Egypt among all art lovers. Some of the popular iconic artworks sheltered in the museum include Bride of the Nile by Mahmoud Mukhtar and Al Madina by Mahmoud Said. Visitors can also spot brilliant artworks by other legendary artists, including Gauguin, Monet, and Van Gogh. Location: Zamalek, Cairo Governorate, Egypt Timings: 10 AM to 4 PM; closed on Monday

Title: Statue of Ramesses II

Description: Dating back to 3,200 years, the Statue of Ramesses II depicts the king in a standing position. Constructed with red granite, this 11 meters tall statue was discovered at the Great Temple of Ptah by Giovanni Battista Caviglia in 1820. Broken into multiple pieces, the statue was restored to its original height over the years by various restoration methods. At the present day, the Statue of Ramesses II stands on a three-metre pedestal, inside the Grand Egyptian Museum. Weighing around 7.25 tons, the Statue of Ramesses II is one of the largest sculptures of Egypt.

Title: Cairo Tower

Description: Located at Sharia Hadayek Al Zuhreya Gezira, the 187 meters tall Cairo Tower is known to be one of the most visited tourist attractions in Egypt. Showcasing a stunning architectural design, this towering structure offers mesmerizing panoramic views of the entire Cairo city from its top floor. Built between 1954 and 1961, the tower flaunts brilliant latticework that offers an insight into the excellent Arab craftsmanship of the times gone by. At present, Cairo Tower is home to many elegant nightclubs and restaurants. Location: Cairo, Egypt Timings: 9:00 AM to 1:00 AM, on all days Entry Fee: EGP 70 per head

Title: Grand Egyptian Museum

Description: Also referred to as the Giza Museum, the Grand Egyptian Museum is a magnificent archaeological museum, which is under construction in the city of Giza. Supposed to be the world's largest archaeological museum, this museum will be home to ancient Egyptian artefacts, including collections of

King Tutankhamun. To be constructed over a land of around 480,000 square metres, the architecture of the museum will resemble a chamfered triangular shape. Location: Cairo - Alexandria Desert Rd, Kafr Nassar, Al Haram, Giza Governorate, Egypt Timings: 9 AM to 5 PM, on all days Entry Fee: 60 EGP for Egyptians; 200 EGP for students; 400 EGP for foreigners

Title: Pyramid of Khafre

Description: Considered to be the 2nd largest and 2nd tallest among the three Pyramids of Giza, Pyramid of Khafre is the tomb of pharaoh Khafre of the Fourth-Dynasty, who ruled between 2558 and 2532 BC. Spanning over a base of 215 meters and rising to a height of 136 meters, this majestic pyramid is coated with Tura limestone. The structure's inner portions feature intriguing chambers that have been cut out of limestones. The Pyramid of Khafre has 2 entrances, one lying at the ground level and the other lying at a height of 11 meters. Location: Al Haram, Giza Governorate, Egypt Timings: 7 AM to 3 PM, on all days

Title: Giza Solar Boat Museum

Description: Built in 1985, Giza Solar Boat Museum was made to shelter the boat, which was placed there after the death of King Cheops. The boat was disassembled and buried, only to be found again and restored. This 44 meters long boat made of Cedar wood is believed to have been used by him to sail down river Nile in his afterlife. Location: Nazlet El-Semman, Al Haram, Giza Governorate, Egypt Timings: 8.30 AM to 4 PM, on all days Entry Fee: LE 10 per head for Egyptians (LE 5 per head for Egyptian students); LE 100 per head for foreigners (LE 50 per head for foreign students)

Title: Red and Bent Pyramid

Description: One of the earliest pyramids to be built, the Bent Pyramid was a creation of one of the Founding figureheads of the Pharaohs known as Sneferu. The very uniquely designed pyramid is a stark contrast to the many other pyramids constructed during later years. Also known as the Red Bent Pyramid of Dahshur, this architectural marvel has 3 funeral chambers and the 3rd chamber has a very unusual feature. The red stones of the roof are designed with gradual overhangs, which results in a very unique pattern not visible in any of the other Pyramids.

Title: Egypt Papyrus Museum

Description: Exhibiting and selling brilliant artworks crafted on a parchment derived from the cyperus papyrus plant, the Egypt Papyrus Museum is one of the most quintessential places to visit in Egypt for every tourist craving to buy some unique souvenirs before leaving Egypt. The brilliant handmade paintings drawn on the barks of the papyrus trees will leave you awestruck at the excellent local craftsmanship. Location: 98 Kafr Nassar, Giza District, Giza Governorate, Egypt Timings: 8 AM to 6 PM, on all days

Title: Pyramid of Djoser

Description: Considered to be one of the less explored places to visit in Egypt, Pyramid of Djoser offers you the chance to explore a typical Egyptian pyramid minus the regular crowd. Lying south of Cairo, in Saqqara town, Djoser Pyramid is known to be the most ancient stone-cut monuments of the earth. Dating back to the 27th century BC, this pyramid was constructed by leveraging a unique step-style architectural design, which predates the Pyramids of Giza that feature a smooth-sided architecture. Location: Al Giza Desert, Giza Governorate, Egypt Timings: 8 AM to 5 PM, on all days

Title: Luxor Museum

Description: The Luxor Museum exhibits a brilliant collection of ancient antiquities that date back to the period between the Old Kingdom and the Mamluk period. Collected majorly from the Theban necropolis and temples, this museum rewards your eyes with a myriad of masterpieces. Some of the impressive collections of the Luxor Museum include a carved figurine of Tuthmosis III, a limestone relief of Tuthmosis III, and an alabaster statue of Amenhotep III. Location: Kornish El Nile, Luxor City, Luxor, Luxor Governorate, Egypt Timings: 9 AM to 4 PM and 5 PM to 10 PM, on all days Entry Fee: 100 EGP for adults & 50 EGP for students

Title: Mortuary Temple of Hatshepsut - Deir el-Bahari

Description: The beautiful Mortuary temple of Hatshepsut is nestled on the western banks of river Nile, at the foothills of the Libyan plateau. Dedicated to the sun god, Amon-Ra, this temple is made of limestone and showcases classical architectural design. The Mortuary temple of Hatshepsut was built by a very skilled architect of that time, Senmut in honour of the glorious achievements of Queen Hatsheput. The temple features 3 impressive terraces, a hypostyle hall, courts, and pylons. Location: Egyptian Environmental Affairs Agency? New Valley Governorate, Egypt Timings: 6 AM to 5 PM, on all days

Title: Valley of Artisans

Description: Valley of Artisans is one of the top places to visit in Egypt for seeing the iconic Egyptian tombs. Also known as Dier el-Medina, it is beautifully crafted with workers' dwellings and magnificently illustrated tombs. Located along the western bank of River Nile, it is just a few minutes away from the Colossi of Memnon and Medinet Habu. You will find beautifully decorated, vivid colors and scenes from daily life. You can plan to visit various tombs like Shuroy, Roy, Anker Ka, and Sennutem within close distance of each other while exploring the Valley of Artisans. Location: Deir el-Medina, Luxor, Egypt

Title: Avenue of Sphinxes

Description: Nestled between the Luxor Temple and the Karnak Temple complex, the Avenue of Sphinxes is the place where various commercial processions were once held. Dating back to 380 BC, the Avenue of Sphinxes is about 2.7 kilometers long, lined by a total of 1,350 sphinxes. The most popular among all the sphinxes is the Great Sphinx at Giza, which bears cat-like features. The other sphinxes lining this avenue feature rams heads. Location: Luxor City, Luxor, Luxor Governorate, Egypt

Title: Colossi of Memnon

Description: Making for one of the popular historical tourist attractions in Egypt, Colossi of Memnon refers to 2 magnificent statues that guarded the temple of King Amenhotep III in the times gone by. These 59 feet tall statues approximately weigh 700 tons and depict the king. Made of quartz sandstone, the statues feature fine carvings near their legs, which represent the mother and the wife of King Amenhotep III. Although the faces of both the statues have been damaged, yet these figurines remain as a major attraction, owing to their imposing size. Location: Al Bairat, Luxor, Luxor Governorate, Egypt Timings: 6 AM to 5 PM, on all days

Title: Temple of Seti

Description: Lying on the outskirts of the city of Luxor, the Temple of Seti is one of the least explored attractions of the country. This temple has been named after Seti I, the Egyptian ruler, who began constructing the building, but could not complete it. Although the temple is a bit damaged at the present day, yet its walls retain the beautiful carvings featuring Seti I and Ramses II and the gods. Location: Naga Al Tareef Inside Rd, Al Qarnah, Luxor, Luxor Governorate, Egypt Timings: 7 AM to 6 PM, on all days Entry Fee: 78 EGP, per head

Title: Coptic Orthodox Church of Alexandria

Description: The Coptic Orthodox Church of Alexandria happens to be an Oriental Orthodox Christian church, which once served as the seat of the head of the Coptic Orthodox Church, the Pope of Alexandria. This church is believed to be standing on the same place where the evangelist and apostle,

Saint Mark had founded a church during the 1st century. The church showcases impressive basilique style architectural design with stunning Coptic engravings. Location: 19 Al Akbar Church, Al Attarin, Alexandria Governorate, Egypt Timings: 6 AM to 10 PM. Closes at 11 PM on Saturday

Title: Bibliotheca Alexandrina - Library in Alexandria

Description: Established as recently as in 2002, Bibliotheca Alexandrina is a very inspiring hub of knowledge. Currently featuring over 1.5 million educational items, the library of Bibliotheca Alexandrina is one of the best Egypt places to visit for readers and students. This huge educational gallery is home to millions of important books, a planetarium, 4 museums, and 6 specialist libraries. Location: Al Azariya WA Ash Shatibi, Qesm Bab Sharqi, Alexandria Governorate 21526, Egypt Timings: Sunday to Thursday - 10 AM to 7 PM; Friday - 2 PM to 7 PM; Saturday - 12 PM to 4 PM Entry Fee: 70 EGP, per head

Title: Citadel of Qaitbay or The Fort of Qaitbay

Description: Nestled on the coast of the Mediterranean Sea, the Citadel of Qaitbay was built as a defensive fortress back in the 15th century. Constructed over the remnants of the iconic Pharos lighthouse built by Mamluk sultan Qaitbey, the citadel features bulky walls and a robust architecture. Transformed into a maritime museum back in 1952, the fortification not only offers an insight of the rich architecture and history of Egypt, but also exhibits fossilized marine creatures. Location: As Sayalah Sharq, Qesm Al Gomrok, Alexandria Governorate, Egypt Timings: 9 AM to 4 PM, on all days Entry Fee: 15 EGP, per head

Title: Alexandria National Museum

Description: Spread across three floors, the stunning Alexandria National Museum offers an insight of the rich heritage and glorious past of the Egyptian city of Alexandria. Inaugurated in 2003, this museum is home to around 1,800 artefacts that speak about Alexandria through the Islamic, Roman, Pharaonic, and Coptic ages. The museum also has precious jewels, glassware, chinaware, and silverware, dating back to the 19th century. Location: 131 El-Shaheed Galal El-Desouky, Bab Sharqi WA Wabour Al Meyah, Qism Bab Sharqi, Alexandria Governorate, Egypt Timings: 9 AM to 4.30 PM, on all days Entry Fee: 35 EGP per head

Title: Stanley Bridge in Alexandria

Description: Built over the Stanley Bay, the picture-perfect Stanley Bridge makes for an important landmark in the city of Alexandria. Featuring 6 spans, the bridge extends up to a length of about 400 meters. Considered to be the countrys first bridge to be built into the sea, the Stanley Bridge is an engineering masterpiece, showcasing the modern Egyptian style architectural design. Tourists visiting the Stanley Bridge can spend time soaking in the breathtaking views of the gorgeous bay and the pristine beaches of Alexandria. Location: Alexandria Governorate, Egypt

Title: The Blue Hole of Dahab

Description: Notably one of the most daredevil places to visit in Egypt, The Blue Hole of Dahab is not for the faint-hearted individuals. The Blue Hole happens to be the worlds most challenging diving location situated a few kilometers north of Dahab in Southeast Sina. Known for its breathtaking underwater and aerial view of the Red Sea, it is not easy to miss out. Originally a marine sinkhole with a depth of over 328 feet or 100 meters, it is a common free diving spot for adventure and thrill-seeking travelers visiting Egypt. It is also a famous spot for snorkeling and diving if you want to spot rare turtle species, corals, and reef sharks. Location: Abu Galum? South Sinai Governorate 46617, Egypt

Title: Mount Sinai

Description: Mount Sinai is known popularly for being the spot where God granted Moses the ten commandments. Considered to be one of the most suggested Egypt places to visit for adventure junkies, this majestic, rugged mountain offers excellent hiking opportunities. Once they reach the summit, the hikers can soak in the panoramic views of the picturesque South Sinai mountain range. Mount Sinai is also known to offer breathtaking views of sunrise and sunset. Location: Jabal Mousa, South Sinai Governorate, Egypt

Title: St. Catherine's Monastery

Description: Constructed between 527 and 565 AD, St. Catherine's Monastery is one of the oldest spiritual places to visit in Egypt. Nestled at the foothills of Mt. Sinai, this monastery has been named after St. Catherine, who had been tortured and killed for her belief in Christianity. This beautiful desert monastery shelters an amazing collection of spiritual iconography, manuscripts, art, and the iconic burning bush. You can also climb Mt. Sinai and enjoy the breathtaking sunset or sunrise views, after paying homage at St. Catherine's Monastery. Location: Saint Catherine, South Sinai Governorate, Egypt Timings: 9 AM to 11.30 PM, open on all days except on Friday and Sunday

Title: Dahab's Eel Garden

Description: Dahab's Eel Garden is one of the most alluring Egypt places to visit, especially for the marine enthusiasts. It has derived its name from many garden eels that accommodate seafloor just a few meters away from the diving entry point of Assalah Shore at around 10 to 20-meter depth. A very unusual phenomenon, the garden eels in this diving spot are a rare beauty one cannot miss out on. In addition to the eels, it is also the perfect place to spot a huge number of barracudas that live permanently here.. You can also enjoy rare seagrass, ghost pipefish, hard and soft corals, and even huge coral boulders. Location: Saint Catherine, South Sinai Governorate, Egypt

Title: Coloured Canyon

Description: Lying near Nuweiba town, on the Sinai peninsula, the Coloured Canyon is a thin slot canyon. The Coloured Canyon got its name from its gorgeous array of colours that make it look unique and fascinating. This 800 meters long canyon evolved as a result of water erosion over millions of years. The canyon is flanked by 40 meters high sandstone walls that flaunt various shades of colours, starting from straw yellow and red to dark brown and black. The hues are a result of the presence of iron oxides and magnesium oxides. Location: Nuweiba, South Sinai Governorate, Egypt

Title: Great Sand Sea in Siwa

Description: Nestled between eastern Libya and western Egypt, the Great Sand Sea is a huge area of sand dunes. Covering a gigantic area of around 72,000 sq. km., the Great Sand Sea makes for one of the largest dune fields in the world. This place is home to some of the world's largest dunes, including barchan, seif, and crescent dunes. These hypnotic sand dunes offer visitors the chance to indulge in a number of fun activities, such as fossil hunting, dune drives, and sand sledding. Location: Siwa, Egypt

Title: Mit Ghamr Dovecotes

Description: Around hundreds of Dovecotes are situated in the delta Nile at Mit Ghamr which is a very unique architectural design only seen in Egypt. These Dovecotes are earthen structures standing tall resembling the likes of long brownish-red earthen chimneys and are utilized primarily for farming pigeons. It is one of the best places in Egypt to explore if you want to see something very unique and offbeat. It was as a part of urban planning that plays an important role in feeding the millions of people residing in the country.

Title: Samir Lama Memorial

Description: Considered to be one of the most popular places to see in Egypt's southwestern region, the

Samir Lama Memorial is dedicated to late actor Samir Lama who was also a very famous desert explorer. He had also discovered Lama- Monod pass located in Southwestern Egypt which is one of the prime reasons why he is an important figure in Egypt. The memorials include a list of monuments scattered in the middle of the Egyptian portion of the Sahara desert. The memorial also offers a stunning view of the Gifl Kebir Plateau on which the monuments are located. Location: Southwestern Egypt

Title: Magic Lake in Fayoum

Description: Lying in Wadi El Hitan in Fayoum, the picturesque Magic Lake offers a truly gorgeous sight to behold. The lake is named as Magic Lake” because of the fact that it tends to alter its colour multiple times a day, based upon the amount of sun rays it receives and the time of the day it is. Encompassed by a sandy desert, the Magic Lake is also believed to contain essential minerals. Going for a swim in this lake can not only offer you the much-needed rejuvenation, but can also treat rheumatism. Location: Al Faiyum Governorate Desert, Faiyum Governorate, Egypt

Title: Fjord Bay

Description: Located around 15 km in the south of Taba, Fjord Bay is one of the popular Egypt places to visit for water activities, including swimming and snorkeling. The bay is surrounded by well-protected coral reefs and spectacularly colorful underworld scenery. Location: Taba, South Sinai Governorate, Egypt Timings: 8 AM to 4 PM

Title: Fortress of Shali in Siwa Oasis

Description: Lying in central Siwa, the Fortress of Shali is a beautiful mud-brick fortification, dating back to the 13th century. Made of kershef (an amalgamation of clay and salt rock) and once sheltered hundreds of people, the fortress is in its ruins now. Built for defending the region against foreign invasions, the fortress originally was a four to five storeyed building. The Fortress of Shali invites many tourists at the present day to soak in its mesmerizing panoramic views of the Nile river. Location: Matrouh Governorate, Egypt

Title: Philae Island

Description: Philae Island is a famous temple island that is situated on the serene Nile River. Located between Aswan High Dam and the old Aswan Dam this is a very important archeological site of various ancient temples and shrines of Egypt. People also know it by the Greek name Elephantine as it is an essential trade center for ivory. The ancient Egyptians have constructed a magnificent and famous Philae island temple complex dedicated to Egyptian God Isis in this tiny landmass that has garnered an important position among UNESCO heritage sites. The entire complex is believed to date back to 600 BC or even before. Location: Aswan, Aswan Governorate, Egypt

Title: Mahmya Island

Description: Situated in Hurghada, Mahmya Island is one of the most amazing places to visit in Egypt for beach lovers. The white sandy beaches and crystal clear water are a crowd favorite of every tourist visiting this exotic island. You will find various bars and restaurants along with a chance to enjoy the stunning nightlife while spending time in Mahmya. Another popular reason for visiting Mahmya Island is it is one of the perfect places for snorkel and swimming. Being a protected bio reserve, this island has some of the best underwater scenic beauty of Egypt. Location: Red Sea Governorate, Egypt Timings: 8 AM to 8 PM

Title: Sannur Valley Cave

Description: Just a 2 hours drive from the city of Cairo, the Sannur Valley Cave is known popularly for its fascinating natural geographical formations of stalagmites and stalactites. There are also a huge quantity of quarries, most of which date back to the ancient eras of Egypt. The cave present here is spread across an area of around 700 meters with 15 meters width and 15 meters depth. The cave was formed as a result of groundwater percolation through the Eocene limestone. Location: Qism Bani Sweif, Bani Sweif, Beni Suef Governorate, Egypt Timings: Open 24 hours Entry Fee: No entry fee
